

Wrapping Up the Core Trainings

Go Get Your CHUNKS

A Note from Pace:

Wow! Does your Gator brain feel like it's had a good workout?

In the last 8 trainings, you've learned the opportunities, solutions, executions, and the outcomes of your new Gator Method business.

At this point you have the foundational knowledge needed, and you should be well on your way with PCS's corporate credit coaching program. Make sure you stay on track to earning your corporate line of credit. It's a whole different game when YOU are the one with the funds.

Make sure you continue on to the next module, "Week 4 and Beyond: Continuing Education" to finish out this release of your Gator Method course. This module will automatically become available to you in the course relative to your start date.

Also, make sure you are participating in the exclusive Discord and Facebook communities. As the famous book title from Porter Gale says, "Your network is your net worth!"
