

Welcome Gators!

Start Here Gator Tribe!

We are so stoked to have you in our Tribe!

In this ongoing course, you'll learn how to create insane investment opportunities within the world of real estate.

In each Core Training, you will find:

- A full-length training video
- Educational chunks of the video, which are the most important learning objectives of the training pulled out for your convenience, so that you can go back and review or watch if you're short on time
- The training companion workbook (and answer key if applicable)

To make the most of this course...

- Complete trainings in order
- Do not skip over any lessons
- Finish workbooks and homework
- Confirm any PCS appointments

You can find everything you need right here: Gator Method Course Links

And you'll get your exclusive paperwork in a later training where we go over all of the docs and how to use them!

Please note: The first five training videos are free content available on YouTube. However, if you have not watched them, please make sure you start at the very beginning with the very first training video, located in PREQ1. Give Money, Raise Money, Make Money, before moving on to the paid portion of the course. Each training video, regardless if free or paid, is in this course, in a specific order, in order to teach to you all the learning objectives of this method. It is very important you do not skip any training videos. Furthermore, the workbooks are not free content and are not available on YouTube.

Now, let's get started!
